

Fun days

Great Child-Friendly
Places to Visit in Herts
and Essex

July 2024

Finding the perfect places to take your kids can make all the difference in creating fun and memorable family outings. Hertfordshire and Essex are packed with fantastic child-friendly destinations that cater to a variety of interests, from interactive museums to scenic parks. Here are some of the best spots to visit with your little ones in these beautiful counties.

Paradise Wildlife Park, Broxbourne - <https://www.pwpark.com>

Paradise Wildlife Park is a fantastic destination for animal lovers. Located in Broxbourne, Hertfordshire, this award-winning zoo is home to over 800 exotic animals, including lions, tigers, and meerkats. The park also offers a range of interactive experiences,

Audley End Miniature Railway, Saffron Walden - <https://www.audley-end-railway.co.uk>

The Audley End Miniature Railway in Saffron Walden, Essex, offers a delightful experience for young train enthusiasts. Families can enjoy a scenic ride on the miniature railway through beautiful woodland,

Barleylands Farm Park and Craft Village, Billericay - <https://www.barleylands.co.uk>

Located in Billericay, Essex, Barleylands Farm Park is a fantastic destination for a fun-filled family day out. Kids can interact with farm animals, enjoy tractor rides, and explore the indoor play barn.

Colchester Zoo, Colchester - <https://www.colchester-zoo.com>

Colchester Zoo in Essex is home to over 200 species and offers a range of immersive experiences, including animal feeding sessions and encounters. The zoo features numerous play areas, both indoor and outdoor.

The Gibberd Garden, Harlow - <https://www.thegibberdgarden.co.uk>

The Gibberd Garden in Harlow, Essex, is a beautiful and tranquil spot for a family visit. The garden is filled with sculptures and hidden nooks, perfect for children to explore and play.

Hylands Park, Chelmsford - <https://www.chelmsford.gov.uk/hylands-estate/visit-hylands>

Hylands Park in Chelmsford, Essex, is a sprawling estate that offers something for everyone. The expansive grounds are perfect for picnics and leisurely walks. Kids will love the adventure playground and exploring the beautiful gardens. The park also hosts various events throughout the year, adding to its appeal as a family destination.

Weald Country Park, Brentwood - <https://www.visitessex.com/attraction/weald-country-park-gruffalo-trail>

Weald Country Park in Brentwood, Essex, is home to the enchanting Gruffalo Trail. Families can follow the trail through the woodland, encountering sculptures of the beloved characters from Julia Donaldson's famous book.

Final Thoughts

Hertfordshire and Essex are brimming with fantastic child-friendly destinations that offer fun, education, and adventure. From wildlife parks and historic houses to adventure playgrounds and miniature railways, there's something for every family to enjoy. So, pack your bags, gather your little ones, and explore the best that Herts and Essex have to offer!

Happy exploring!